ACTIVITY SUMMARY REPORT
FOR THE QUARTER ENDING JUNE 30, 2008

Medical Marijuana Dispensary, 8714 Norwalk Boulevard, Whittier (First District)

On June 16, 2008, in response to a complaint received from County Counsel, TTC conducted a complaint investigation at a business located at 8714 Norwalk Boulevard, Whittier. The investigation revealed a medical marijuana dispensary operating without a business license. The business was issued a Notice of Violation to cease operation until the proper business license was obtained. On July 3rd, the attorney representing the property owner contacted County Counsel to state that they were taking action to terminate the tenancy and were changing the locks to the business.

La Fortaleza Bar, 4031 Medford Avenue, Los Angeles (First District)

On June 18, 2008, in response to a request from the East Los Angeles Sheriff's Department, a hearing was set to deny the renewal of the Public Eating Business License for La Fortaleza Bar, located at 4031 Medford Avenue, Los Angeles. Specifically, investigations by the Sheriff's Department revealed violations of State Law and County Codes at the business. During the past twelve months, there have been 40 narcotic-related arrests at the location, at least 25 additional narcotic-related arrests in the immediate area, 1 search warrant resulting in 5 narcotic-related arrests, and ABC has an ongoing investigation on the revocation of their alcohol sales license. The Sheriff's Department believes that this business is a detriment to the public safety, health and welfare of the community at large. A hearing rescheduled for July 2, 2008 has been rescheduled for August 6, 2008.
